

1. Watch-man, blow the gos-pel trum-pet, Ev - ery soul a warn-ing give;
 2. Sound it loud o'er ev-ery hill-top, Gloom - y shade and sun-ny plain;
 3. Sound it in the hedge and high-way, Earth's dark spots where ex-iles roam;
 4. Sound it for the heav-y la-den, Wea - ry, long-ing to be free;

5

Who - so - ev - er hears the mes-sage May re-pent, and turn and live.
 O - cean depths re - peat the mes-sage, Full sal - va - tion's glad re - frain.
 Let it tell all things are read - y, Fa - ther waits to wel - come home.
 Sound a Sav - ior's in - vi - ta - tion, Sweet - ly say - ing, "Come to me."

9

Blow the trum-pet, trust-y watch-man, Blow it loud o'er land and sea;
 loud o'er land and sea;

13

God commissions, sound the mes - sage! Ev-ery cap-tive may be free.