

1. For sun-rise hope and sun-set calm, And all that lies be - tween,
 2. But O, we press far, far a - bove These gifts of pure de - light,

6

For all the sweet-ness and the balm That is and that has been,
 And find in Thee, and in Thy love Con - tent-ment in - fi - nite.

11

For com-rade-ship, for peace in strife, And light on dark-ened days;
 O Lord, be-loved, in whom are found All joys of time and place,

16

For work to do and strength for life We sing our hymn of praise.
 What will it be when joy is crowned By vi - sion of Thy face?
