

1. O broth - er, be faith - ful! soon Je - sus will come,
 2. O broth - er, be faith - ful! the cit - y of gold,
 3. O broth - er, be faith - ful! He soon will de - scend,
 4. O broth - er, be faith - ful! e - ter - ni - ty's years

4

For whom we have wait - ed so long; O, soon we shall en - ter our Pre - pared for the good and the blest, Is wait - ing its por - tals of Cre - a - tion's om - nip - o - tent King, While le - gions of an - gels His Shall tell for thy faith - ful - ness now, When bright smiles of glad - ness shall

8

glo - ri - ous home, And join in the con - quer - or's song.
 pearl to un - fold, And wel - come thee in - to thy rest.
 char - iot at - tend, And palm wreaths, of vic - to - ry bring.
 scat - ter thy tears, A cor - o - net gleam on thy brow.

11

O broth - er, be faith - ful! for why should we prove
 Then, broth - er, prove faith - ful! not long shall we stay
 O broth - er, be faith - ful! and soon shalt thou hear
 O broth - er, be faith - ful! the prom - ise is sure,

14

Un - faith - ful to Him who hath shown Such deep, such un-bound -
 In wea - ri-ness here, and for - lorn, Time's dark night of sor -
 Thy Sav - ior pro-nounce the glad word, Well done, faith-ful serv -
 That waits for the faith - ful and tried; To reign with the ran -

18

ed and in - fi-nite love Who died to re-deem us His own.
 row is wear - ing a - way, We haste to the glo - ri-ous morn.
 ant, thy ti - tle is clear, To en - ter the joy of thy Lord.
 somed, im - mor - tal and pure, And ev - er with Je - sus a - bide.