

♩ = 80

4

O world of God, so vast and strange, pro-found and O world of man, where life is lived, so strange-ly
 O world of time's far-stretching years! there was a

7

won-der-ful and fair, Be-yond the ut - most reach of ming-ling joy and pain, So full of e - vil and of day when time stood still, A cen-tral mo - ment when there thought, but not be - yond a Fa - ther's care! We are not good, so need-ful that the good shall reign! It is this rose a cross up - on a cru - el hill; In pain and strang - ers on this earth whirl - ing a - mid the suns of world death that God has loved, and good-ness was its Ma-ker's love's power was seen, the mys - ter - y of time re -

10

13

16

space; We are God's chil - dren, this our home, with those of plan, The prom - ise of of God's tri - umph is His com - ing vealed, The wis - dom of the ways of God, the grace through

19

1,2 Interlude

ev - ery clime and race.
 in a Son and of Man.
 which man's hurt is

22

3 Postlude

healed.